guised as a man, and participated in the attempted train robbery and the parley with the brakeman when he was shot. It is further charged by one of the suspects that the girl precipitated the acts which foiled the men in robbing the train by not obeying orders. When Van Meter and Howe were lodged in jail Howe claimed to be from Fort Worth, Tex., but it has been ascertained that he has been identified as the stool pigeon of burglars and highwaymen, being known in his profession as the "Kid." Van Meter, when jailed, wanted to know if any shooting had been done on a railroad here. He was nervous and irritable. Shelles is a stalwart man, six feet two inches high. Howe is the small man who was the first to leave the train. Two of them have served time in prison. Van Meter was liberated from Joliet in September after serving two years for burglary. Shelles went to the same prison in 1891 for a term of fourteen years for incest, but was pardoned last summer by Governor Altgeld at the request of many prominent citizens of Legan county. Shelles and Van Meter hail from southwest Indiana, near the Wabash

This evening Albert Woodward, an employe of the coal mine where the bandits made their rendezvous, was arrested. He is accused of having talked on the subject of train robbing Monday, failed to report Tuesday, and was absent from home until this morning. He was in a scratched and bruised condition yesterday. He compares favorably to the man who jumped off the train while it was running twenty-five miles an hour. His arrest clears up the doubts as to the identity of all the suspected, and behind this is the rumor that he has promised a confession. Shelles's daughter has given her father, Van Meter and Howe away through revenge for cruelty her father practiced toward her. The State's attorney is confident the right men are in jail, and that their conviction is practically assured. He thinks that a dangerous band of highwaymen and burglars have been rounded up.

SHOT BY BURGLARS.

Thomas Prunty Killed and His Son

and Daughter Wounded. CHICAGO, Nov. 15 .- Thomas Prunty was shot and killed by burglars at his home in West Thirteenth street last night, and two other members of the family-Sadie and Peter Prunty-were wounded by the burglars' bullets.

Mrs. Prunty was awakened by two intruders who were in her room. She called for her husband, who rushed to grapple with the men. A shot from one of them stopped him, and he fell, dying almost instantly. The noise awakened other members of the family, and a son and daughter, rushing to their mother's room, blockaded the exit of the burglars. More shots followed, and the daughter fell with a bullet in her thigh, the son being shot in the The intruders sprang over the wounded young woman and made their escape. Two policemen, who were near at the time, gave chase and fired at the retreating men, but without effect. The murdered man was an employe of the city, having been engaged in the street department. He was reported to have kept a considerable sum of money in the house, and this the police think was known to the men who attempted the burgiary. Two suspicious characters have been arrested, and will be held for examination.

A FARM HAND'S CRIME.

Assaulted and Killed His Employer's Daughter and Cut His Own Throat.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 15 .- A horrible crime was perpetrated near Alliance, O., last night. Miss Birdie Baugh, handsome and highly esteemed in the community, and a student at Mount Union College, was ravished and murdered by Curt Davidson, a farm hand in the employ of Mr. Baugh. This merning her dead body was found on the barn floor. Half a mile away Davidson was found lying beside the road with his throat cut and in a dying condition.

A dispatch from Alliance to-night says: "Never before in the history of Alliance has a lynching been so imminent as it is to-night. There is no noise or loud talking about it, but the groups of men who have been canvassing the matter since last nightfall are ugly in a quiet way. In addition to a special watch set this afternoon to protect the brute whom hundreds of men are eager to kill twelve more deputies have been sworn in for duty to-night. Curtin Davidson, the murderer of Miss Birdie Baugh, is reported so near death as not to be worth hanging, but there is a growing conviction among the men who are canvassing the lynching that Davidson is not dying, and that the physicians are giving out these reports of his precarious condition to pacify the people. The threatening assembly of men at what were aparently designated points in the city during the evening convinced the authorities that Davidson was in imminent danger of a rope or a bullet before morning. They wired Sheriff Krider to come at once from Canton. The sheriff arrived shortly after 10 The guard over Davidson was reinforced, but in less than an hour the situation became so threatening that Company K of the Eighth Regiment of Ohio's National Guard was ordered out. They are now stationed at the barracks under arms. The men who are eager to finish Davidson are not awed by the demonstration, and are urging that many of the soldiers are in sympathy with the scheme to swing the murderer. There is intense excitement throughout the city. After a brief conference between the city authorities it was decided to send Davidson to New Lisbon in order to avert a lyniching, which seemd inevitable at midnight. The prisoner was removed to the railway station in an ambulance under guard of all the county authorities whose services were available. At the depot the mob which had followed the ambulance made a desperate attempt to secure the prisoner, but were repulsed after a brief skirmish with the guards.

Surrendered $5,000.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.-It was learned this evening that R. P. McCormick, president of the McCormick Construction Company, of St. Louis, was held up by three men on the towpath of the Illinois and Michigan caral last evening and a package of money amounting to $8,000 taken from him. Mc-Cormick's company has the contract for a section of the drainage canal. He was re-Tueday night, and had with him the money which was to be used in paying off the laborers. As he neared his camp three men sprang on him, and he found himself looking foto six revolvers. He complied with a request to throw up his hands, and the men took his money sachel and ordered him to walk on without looking around. When he did turn the men had disappeared.

The police were incredulous about the hold-up, and have been laboring with Mc-Cormick all day and evening. At 12:30 a m. (Thursday) they say that McCormick has confessed that his story of the "holdup" was made up to cover the loss of the money, which had gotten away from him in some manner which he professed to be unable to explain. Nothing more definite has been learned.

An Unrepentant Murderess.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Nov. 15.-Amelia Darby, who on Monday pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree for killing Thomas Lloyd, was sentenced to-day to fifteen years in the penitentiary. She is the divorced wife of Jenkin Evans, and was alleged to have been separated from Thomas Lloyd. She confessed that she went to Keb, lured Lloyd into the woods, and killed him. Evans was convicted of murder in the first degree and given a life sentence. When sentence was passed Miss Darby never flinched. She said to an officer that although she "must atone by her punishment of fifteen years in the penitentiary, and her husband for life, the dog who maligned her character could not come back to life, and she was glad of General Treasurer Accuses the Genera Master Workman of Misappropriating Strikers' Funds.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.-A fight was begun in to-day's session of the Knights of Labor convention between the Hayes and Powderly factions which is likely to continue with bitterness during the remainder of the session. A report was also presented by the general executive committee, the exact nature of which cannot be learned, but it is understood that counter accusations are made in it against what is know as the Hayes faction. Grand Master Workman Powderly is engaged to-night in marshaling his forces from all parts of the country, preparatory to a big fight which is expected to take place to-morrow. It is said that he has summoned his ancient enemies - Robert Buchanan and John Morrison-to his assistance and that they will come here and try and reconcile the warring elements. Treasurer Hayes's report shows that $3. 616.11 had been received for the Homestead and Cour D'Alene affairs and $190.51 for the defense of Dempsey. The amount that was paid out to the Homestead and Cour D'Alene strikers was $907.29, or $2,708.91 less than had been received for the purpose. The order received for the fiscal year ending on that date $51,817.60, while the expenses amounted to $52,560.87. From the preceding year, however, there was a balance of $865.37, which enabled the order to finish the fiscal year with $426.30 in the treasury.

Most from Indiana and Illinois. PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 15 .- A number of delegates to the extra session of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers have arrived in Pittsburg. They are principally from the far Western iron manufaturing districts, Indiana and Illinois indications are that not more than half as many delegates as attended the June convention will be present to-morrow. This is chiefly from lack of time to prepare for the convention more than from the loss of mills, as the only plants which have withdrawn from the Amalgamated Association since June are in the Pittsburg district.

Conferred with Ingalls. CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 15.-The striking employes of the Cairo division of the Big Four railroad, who returned to work last week pending a settlement, had representatives here to-day to confer with President Ingalls. The conference was successful, an agreement being reached by which the road concedes nothing, but which was entirely satisfactory to the strikers.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Nov. 15 .- John Chrisler, who, six years ago, was a resident of this county and worth $10,000, is on the streets of this city, having arrived here today, selling lead pencils, and is being led about by his fourteen-year-old boy. His story is pitiful. Seven years ago he sold his farm, in the northeastern part of this county, and went to Allen county, Kansas, where he was persuaded to purchase a farm which was represented to be free from incumbrance, and for which he paid its value in cash. To his sorrow, he found, a year later, that an Eastern trust and loan company had a mortgage on the farm for almost its entire value. This was a misfortune in its way, but it was not the only one which overtook him. In 1889 he and a cowboy named Columbus Carter had a difficulty concerning a corn planter and went to court about it. In the trial Chrisler was victorious, and Carter threatened to have revenge. He assaulted Chrisler with a pitchfork, striking him on the head, rendering him unconscious, and while in that condition he gouged out both of his eyes. Indignant citizens pursued Carter, and, six days later, he was caught by a mob and hanged. Chrisler lost his farm, and has come back to his home to spend his remaining days in blindness and poverty.

Special to the Indianpolis Journal. LOGANSPORT, Ind., Nov. 15 .- Judge A. W. Reynolds, of Monticello, in the Cass Circuit Court, this morning, rendered his decision in the case of Logansport against the sheerin Natural-gas Company. This is the case in which the city sought to restrict the gas company from increasing its rates, and the suit was a result of the sending most of the delegates. The present | gas war which has been waged for the past year by the City Council and the Logansport papers. Judge Reynolds gave a complete and sweeping decision in faror of the city, permanently enjoining the gas company from raising the rate beyond the ordinance schedule. His decision is of interest to gas cities in Indiana, and the the gas company would have been followed by an increase of rates in many gas towns. The court holds that the city had a right to contract for natural gas for its citizens: that the rate ordinance, passed and accepted in writing by the gas company, and operated under, was a contract; that whether the city had a right to contract or not the gas company having accepted the consideration of the contract is now estopped from setting up that the contract was void. The restricting order was made permanent, and an appeal asked for. The case will now go to the Supreme Court, where it will be watched with interest by gas consumers over the State. -Her Mode of Warfare. NEW YORK, Nov. 15 .- El Cid, or Nichteroy, as the new Brazilian war vessel is now called, was pulled out of the Morgan Brothers' docks, at the foot of East Ninth street, this afternoon, and was berthed at the Wilson line dock, Brooklyn. The intention of the Brazilian government is to use the fast Nichteroy and America and their torpedo boats to block Mello's fleet. They will shell the cruisers whenever they are able to get near enough without too much danger, and if Mello tries to retaliate will trust to their heels to escape, or try to use the swift torpedo boats to destroy any war vessels sent against them. In other words, Peixoto's fleet intends to practice guerrilla tactics. It will fight when it has the best of it and run away when the enemy is too aggressive, the main object being to cut Mello off from supplies and eventually starve him into submission. Custom house officials say these ships cannot leave the harbor without clearing properly. If so a full list of the officers and crews, together with a manifest of cargo, must be filed. This has not yet been done. The coaling of the Nichteroy began at o'clock, and will continue night and day, She will take on about 2,500 tons, in addition to what she now has in her bunkers. ### AMUSEMENTS.

English's-Sam Jack's "Creoles."

Sam Jack's "Creoles" slipped into town almost unannounced yesterday, and gave a performance at English's last night, much in the same line as seen here on the two former occasions when the "Creoles" visited Indianapolis. The audience was not large, owing, perhaps, to the impression that the engagement would not begin until to-night. The striking feature, and one which is doing a pile of advertising for the show this season-the Dance du Ventrewas cut out of the bill. Some one objected to this Midway Plaisance specialty on the grounds of being-well, not quite up to caste for Indianapolis. If the intention was to have one of the "Creoles" dance it there is no objection to the obliteration, but if a real Midway artist were to give it, as was done by the star performers at Chicago, the omission is hardly understood. It is eartainly preferable to the slough of stale Hibernian or Bowery jokes being worked off. The "Creoles" give another performance

Some Coming Attractions.

The Park Theater's new attraction, beginning with the matinee to-day, will be the musical comedy "The Voodoo," which made a hit here at English's last season. Mr. Thomas E. Murray, an excellent Irish comedian, and Miss Ada Bothner still have the principal parts, and the specialties, in which the piece abounds, are all new.

High-class performances of opera at popular prices is what is promised in the engagement of the Carleton Opera Company at English's all next week. The works to gagement opens on Monday night; "Chimes of Normandy," "Bohemian Girl" and "Mi-kado." Mr. Carleton will sing at every performance. He has a large and well-equipped company, the principals including Miss Alice Vincent, Miss Tellula Evans, Clara Wisdom, Jay Taylor, comedian McCollen, H. M. Imano and others. The sale of seats will begin this morning. The advance sale of seats will begin at the Grand this morning for the engagement of Felix Morris the first part of next week. Mr. Morris offers a carefully chosen repertoire, which includes at least three plays new here, but giving excellent opportunity to this versatile actor, unlike any in which he has been seen heretofore. Mr. Morris is well and favorably known here as one of the greatest artists of the time, and the forthcoming engagement, which includes three nights, will be specially notable for excellence and completeness throughout. The plays promised are "The Old Musician," "The Major," "Cousin Joe," "Moses," "The Rose" and "The Vagabond." Mr. Mantell's Engagement.

Mr. Robert Mantell, who has come to be accepted as the leading exponent of his line of stage work, will play at the Grand tonight and during the remainder of the week, opening his engagement with "Monbars," a heroic drama by D'Ennery, in which this star has met with great success during the past five years. To-morrow night "Parrhassius," a new and powerful heroic drama, will be given. "Monbars" will be repeated at the Saturday matinee, and the engagement will conclude Saturday night with another new play, "The Face in the Moonlight." Mr. Mantell is a manly, artistic actor, and his company includes capable people, notably Miss Charlotte Behrens, a leading lady of fine powers, and Miss Katherine Kerrigan, a beautiful young woman, whose home is at New Albany, Ind.

Conspiracy of Barcelona Anarchists That Happily Failed.

But for the Impatience of One Man Many Bombs Would Have Been Thrown Into the Liceo Theater.

BARCELONA, Nov. 15 .- The Anarchists

of this city, despite police precautions, continue to terrify the people. Yesterday while a body of troops was embarking for Melilla a bomb with a burning fuse attached was found in a position that would nad not the bomb been discovered. The gates of the barracks near this city were destroyed by dynamite yesterday morning It is stated that Judge Domenech has in his possession the names of all the persons who were connected with the bomb outrage at the Liceo Theater last week, and that the culprits are already in custody. It is asid that the plot was arranged by several Anarchists. The plan was one which, if it had been successfully carried out, would have involved wholesale de-struction of life. Each of the plotters was to carry a bomb into the theater and to station themselves in different parts of the gallery. One of the number was deputized to turn off the gas lights, and at this signal the bombs were to be thrown. The man who was to put out the lights failed to find the meter, and one of his companions growing impatient of waiting for darkness, threw his bomb down into the stalls. Judge Domenech earned a reputation as a prosecutor by stamping out the Black Hand criminal organization in Andalusia some years ago, and the prisoners will undoubtedly be rigidly dealt with when they will come before him.

FATE OF EXPLORERS.

Bjerling and His Party Probably Lost in the Arctic Sea. LONDON, Nov. 15 .- A letter written by the Swedish explorer, Bjerling, who started on an expedition to the Arctic regions last year, was brought to Dundee by the whaling vessel Aurora. The letter was found in a cave on Carey Istand. It relates that the explorer's vessel, the Ripple, stranded in August, 1892. The expedition then took to the boats and went to the mouth of Smith sound. They returned to Carey Island at the end of September and remained there until Oct. 10, when they again took to the boats, intending to reach Clarence head, Ellesmere land. The letter was written just before the party started. Bjerling added that they had only twenty days' provisions, and that one of the seamen in the party was dying. The crew of the Au-rora found the body of a man, and they. believe that to be the seaman mentioned. The captain of the Aurora believes that it would have been impossible for the boats of the expedition to have escaped destruction in the heavy ice. Captain McKay, of the whaling vessel Aurora, describing the discovery in the Arctic regions of the relics of the expedition, says that he had forced his way through Melville bay and entered Smith sound when, on June 17, from the masthead of his vessel the wreck of a schooner was discovered on the southeast coast of Carey island, in latitude 78.49, longitude 73.10. He sent a searching party ashore in charge of Dr. Allen, and they found that the schooner was the Ripple. She was lying broadside to the beach, and was almost encased in ice. In addition to the cairns which were found the party came across a trunk which contained instruments, notes and diaries, all of which were forwarded to the Swedish authorities. There was also found a letter addressed to the Rev. Dr. Harvey, of Newfoundland, which was forwarded to that gentleman.

Bank of England Irregularities.

LONDON, Nov. 15 .- The Times this morning, referring to rumors adverse to the Bank of England, says: "An investigation of certain irregularities with regard to advances on securities is proceeding, but the probable losses will be much less than has been alleged, and the reports of the retirement of directors are erroneous. While it would be difficult to fix the blame upon individual directors we are of opinion that there must be a serious fault in the system under which the irregularities occurred. This undoubtedly will receive attention. It appears to us that on the present occasion the bank will be well advised to depart from its customary and proper practice of ignoring such rumors and publish the facts which concern the public in advance of the half yearly meeting. Though the bank is a private corporation, it is also a national institution, and therefore ought to reassure the public when uneasiness has been created by false rumors." Tried to Kill a Sleek Bourgeois. PARIS. Nov. 15.-The Servian minister. M. Gorgevics, who was stabbed by an alleged Anarchist in a restaurant on the Avenue de l'Opera on Monday last, as previously detailed in these dispatches, is much worse to-day; the wounded man was spitting blood all night. Lauthier, the man who stabbed him, has written to an Anarchist comrade named Foure, declaring himself to be an Anarchist, and adding that he was reduced to such straits that he had to be given are "Nanon," with which the en- | die of hunger or commit sulcide. Under these circumstances, Lauthier continued, he preferred to kill a "sleek bourgeois" before death, and regretted his inability to make a "grand coup like the sublime Ravachol." Lauthier, who is believed to be insane, is said to be a shoemaker by trade, and to # be only nineteen years of age.

The European Schemers. LONDON, Nov. 16 .- The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at St. Petersburg says that a number of sensational rumors are in circulation in that city. One of them is that Greece is willing to sell the island of Mile, or the island of Paros to Russia for a pecuniary consideration, and that Greece is also willing to join the Russo-French alliance. Another statement is that Russia hopes to detach Italy from the triple alliance by the possession of a fleet in the Mediterranean, and another is that in fear that Italy might take such a step, Germany and Austria might be induced to join Russia in a coalition against England on the policy inaugurated by Prince Bismarck. A further rumor is that Count Kalnoky's visit to Italy is connected with these changes.

Fire in Old Bailey. LONDON, Nov. 15 .- Fire broke out tonight in the upper stories of Nos. 26 and 27 Old Bailey. The fiames spread rapidly to other buildings and were carried across Fleet lane to a building opposite. The glare of the flames illuminated the front of St. Paul's Cathedral, and great throngs of excited people were attracted to the scene. Castle's publishing house was at one time on fire, but the flames were extinguished before any serious damage had been done. The fire was mastered after a hard fight. The total damage is $500,000. The establishments of several firms were burned out.
